Power without love
is reckless and abusive

Love without power is sentimental and anemic

"No," said Cobb, "it's because I'm 70."

Ephesians 3:14-21

¹⁴Because of this, I am kneeling down before the father, ¹⁵the one who gives the name of 'family' to every family that there is, in heaven and on earth. ¹⁶My prayer is this: that he will lay out all the riches of his glory to give you strength and power, through his spirit, in your inner being; ¹⁷that the king may make his home in your hearts, through faith; that love may be your root, your firm foundation; ¹⁸and that you may be strong enough (with all God's holy ones) to grasp

A wooden cross stands in the center of the image, set against a background of a church interior. To the left, a stained glass window with blue and white patterns is visible. The lighting is soft, creating a serene atmosphere.

the breadth and length and height and depth, ¹⁹and to know the king's love—though actually it's so deep that nobody can really know it! So may God fill you with all his fullness.

²⁰So: to the one who is capable of doing far,
far more than we can ask or imagine, granted his power which is working in us—²¹to him be glory, in the church, and in King Jesus, to all generations, and to the ages of ages! Amen!

EXCEEDINGLY Abundantly

God is able ...

A large, black silhouette of a cross is centered in the image. The background is a dramatic sunset or sunrise sky, with the sun low on the horizon, creating a bright orange and yellow glow. The sky is filled with dark, textured clouds. In the lower right corner, there are silhouettes of trees. The text "God is able to do ..." is written in a light pink, sans-serif font across the middle of the image, partially overlapping the cross and the sky.

God is able to do ...

God is able to do ...
Not just all, but above all

God is able to do ...
Exceeding abundantly

²⁰So: to the one who is capable of doing far, far more than we can ask or imagine, granted his power which is working in us—
²¹to him be glory, in the church, and in King Jesus, to all generations, and to the ages of ages! Amen!
